Happy 100th Birthday Eleanor!

Everyone at The Country Village would like to wish Eleanor a Happy 100th birthday!

Eleanor and her family are from San Francisco. She enjoyed gardening there with her friends Eileen and Gladys. Eleanor recommends that we all “learn to like everything.”

Activities...

On Thursday, December 1st we will be hosting a Holiday Decorating Party. If you are interested in joining us to string garland, trim trees and decorate the Houses for Christmas, please give us a call! Please contact Dana if you have any questions.

“Walk to End Alzheimer’s” Recap...

Thank you to all of the wonderful families, volunteers and staff that helped support and walk with us at Bidwell Park, October 7th. It was a beautiful day, full of warm weather and happy spirits.

Welcome Dana Wilkerson!!

Please help us in welcoming Dana as our new Activities Coordinator. Dana has many years of experience in developing and implementing activities programs. Her most recent position was as teacher for adults needing independent living education. We are incredibly excited to have Dana on board and please, if you see her around, be sure to welcome her to the team!

Welcome...

The Country Village would like to take the time to welcome Joe! We look forward to getting to know you and your family!

Team Member Spot Light

Fun Facts About Artemio

He is very interested in Combat Sports—Kung Fu and Aikido, and earned Kukyu first skirt, which is the level right before black belt.

He was recently married for the first time and met his wife online. Their first date was in downtown Chico.

For the month of Nov. we are Spotlighting Artemio! Artemio has been at Country Village since May. He is one of our caring Resident Assistants. Artemio grew up in the Philippines and came to Reno, Nevada in 2006 to begin a career in caregiving. He moved to Chico in 2016.
